

Growmark

Technology and Information Coordinator

MAR 21 2006

Responsibilities Include:

- Manage agronomy information exchange
- Develop, organize and execute the precision Ag soil testing programs
- Will lead the in house map making activities
- Market precision farming equipment and assist with installation, problem solving and calibration.
- Provide the information link between precision farm technologies and coop personnel and serves as the company's contact person on all matter relating to precision farming.
- Provide inputs on marketing precision farming to targeted markets
- Assist the crop specialist with precision farming meetings, sales interviews and proposals presentations

Requirements include:

- Minimum of 2 year college degree in Ag with a minimum of 2 years work experience or a 4 year college degree with appropriate experience.
- Excellent written and oral communication
- Very good customer service experience
- Excellent Computer Skills
- Basic agronomic knowledge

Position offers:

- Excellent career growth opportunities
- Very good benefits and compensation incentives
- A growing precision farming market
- Excellent equipment and new technology

Contact:

Rob Meade

515-251-8543 x 105